

VOLUNTEER RELEASE FORM

1.0 Volunteer Release Statement

- 1.1 Thank you for volunteering with WQA. The strength of WQA has always been the voluntary effort of people who contribute their time and talents over the years. We value your contribution. In order for WQA to fully utilize the work product you contribute, please sign the statement set forth below.
- 1.2 You understand that as a condition to volunteering, you assign and transfer to WQA all worldwide right, title and interest in and to your contribution and work product on the committee, including but not limited to all revisions and/or derivatives thereto, including the copyright therein, in all languages and in all forms now known or later developed, including but not limited to electronic formats for the full term of the copyright, and all renewals and extensions thereof throughout the world.

2.0 To be filled out by the Volunteer

- 2.1 I understand and agree that publications, educational materials, standards and other intellectual property developed by or for WQA, or WQA Committees, Task Forces and/or Subtask Forces, are owned by WQA, and that WQA is free to copyright the materials in its own name as set forth in the U.S. Copyright Act.
- 2.2 I grant permission to WQA to publish my name as a participant in the development process of final products (e.g., publications, standards, educational materials, etc.), which I volunteer to work on.
- 2.3 I warrant that the work I contribute to the process will be my own original work and will not infringe on the rights of others.

2.4 Date:

2.5 Signature:

2.6 Please Type Name:

Check this box if you have not electronically signed article 2.5 and agree that the typed name in article 2.6 is as valid as your signature